

Pappas Telecasting uses the public airwaves free of charge. To serve the public interest, Pappas should give both major political parties equal access to the viewing audience. Instead, Pappas has given0 Republican candidates $325,000 of air time and offered their opponets much less access. The FCC should hold Pappas responsible for its actions.